GOSPEL MEDITATION

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, “He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself.” It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, “two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts.” Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let’s pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus’ communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

BLESSED SOLANUS CASEY, OFM Cap.

Though he died over 65 years ago, his legacy thrives. Join us for seven days of videos devoted to this beloved Capuchin Franciscan. Each day, from July 25-31 (the feast day of Blessed Solanus), find stories and prayerful meditations in the spirit of this holy man. CALLING MISSIONARY DISCIPLES

As part of our future parish endeavors to grow as strong disciples of our faith, OLA is offering all parishioners an opportunity to participate in Parish Missionary Disciples (PMD), a training offered to deepen Catholics' relationship with Jesus Christ, transforming them into disciples and empowering them to give witness to how He lives in hearts, influences lives, and calls everyone to holiness. The program consists of ten 3-hour in-person modules covering "Love for God", "Love for Neighbor" and "Living the Commission" which will take place on Fridays from 6-9pm and Saturdays from 9am-4pm on September 6-7, September 27-28, October 19 and November 9. Parish Missionary Disciples

Parish Missionary Disciples (PMD) is a training offered to deepen Catholics' relationship with Jesus Christ, transforming them into disciples and empowering them to give witness to how He lives in hearts, influences lives, and calls everyone to holiness.

Participants will engage with the mission of Jesus Christ, learn how to cultivate intentional relationships, discover methods of prayer such as Lectio Divina, prepare for encounter with others, learn how to plan their mission, and live out their call to be agents of evangelization.

Rooted in Christ's Love

The missionary disciple has Jesus Christ as the center of his or her life and is willing to develop the confidence and competence to invite others to know and love Christ.

Engage Others with Confidence

Sharing your witness with others can be daunting. Parish Missionary Disciples provides Catholics with tools to reflect on their own history of grace, commit to personal growth in holiness, and share that journey with others.

Ignite Your Parish

The desired result is a parish community reawakened and transformed by the person of Jesus Christ and on fire to share that encounter with others so that they too can be transformed and on fire in the name of Christ!
