GOSPEL MEDITATION

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis, and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indigent reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way he does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But he does highlight their ignorance (“you do not know what you are asking.”). Then he invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but his cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the “slave of all.” The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear him call you to an even greater victory.

It begins with a 5-week session from November 7 to December 12 (excluding Thanksgiving week) from 6:45-8:15pm in the Padre Pio Room (room outside the school office). After Christmas, it will resume from January 9 to June 19 with a break for Lent. The cost of the book is $50. MINORITY

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Second Collection This Weekend at all Masses

World Mission Sunday is a day for Catholics to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice. Pope Francis reminds us, "we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves" and that we can respond to our missionary call through charity. Your prayers and sacrifices support priests, religious, and lay pastoral leaders who are proclaiming the Gospel, building the Church and serving the poorest communities.
