GOSPEL MEDITATION

My parents' garage is full of old junk that no longer serves any purpose in my life. As a 46-year-old man, I admit that's pretty lame. Either due to my sentimentality or laziness (or both, probably), I just couldn't get myself to throw things away. But a few days ago, by a grace of God, I thought: "I'll hire my nephew Ryan to throw a bunch of my stuff away — he couldn't care less about my junk!" And you know what? It worked. In one day, Ryan chucked the majority of his uncle's useless stuff. I feel so free, ready for a new junk-free chapter in my life.

This kind of thing happens in this Sunday's Gospel. Peter's net is full of useless junk. Luke says he and the others are cleaning their nets after catching no fish. Imagine them dejectedly and impatiently removing a nasty assortment of seaweed, sticks and muck. The Lord teaches and calls them once their nets are cleared out. So it goes with us. Spiritual life begins by removing that which is useless and merely taking up space in our hearts, minds and lives. Then Jesus teaches and acts in a marvelous way in our lives, too.

So what's junking up your net? What habits, attachments, possessions, preoccupations? If, like me, you struggle to clean your nets by yourself, ask the Lord to send you someone like my nephew to be your "Peter" and help you clean it out. It is well worth it. Once Peter's net is clean, he is free to make a wonderful catch.

WORLD DAY OF THE SICK

WORD ON FIRE

The parish has discontinued our Formed subscription and replaced it with Word On Fire, a similar Catholic Content streaming service. To access Word on Fire, you must first join our Flocknote community at olacommunity.flocknote.com. Simply enter your name and contact information, and then click on "Sign Me Up" where you will be guided through the process. Once signed in, you can click to view the Word on Fire Digital Library. The system will recognize the device that you are using for 30 days so that you can visit www.wofdigital.com/browse directly to access those videos at any time using that same device. If it's been over 30 days since you last visited the site and/or you are using a new device, you will just want to go back in through your Flocknote Dashboard again so the system recognizes that you are a Flocknote + Word on Fire ENGAGE parishioner.
