GOSPEL MEDITATION

One of the most fascinating moments in American history is when George Washington could have become the king of the newly liberated United States and didn't. At the height of his power and fame, on Dec. 23, 1783, he resigned his commission as Commander-in-Chief, and went home. The astonished King of England remarked that in doing so, Washington was "the greatest man in the world." Greatness is often defined by what we could do but don't. Greatness is measured by the temptations we overcome.

Jesus' greatness is revealed in his victory over temptations, too. The three offered him by the devil contain, we might say, all potential possible temptations: food, power and fame. They correspond to the triple human needs of body, soul and spirit. In overcoming these three, he says "no" in essence to every and even the greatest temptation. We see that every desire of his humanity — body, soul and spirit — is perfectly united to God, to love. This is a power available to each member of his body. It is the path to true greatness. How can we, who so easily fall into even small temptations, find the power to overcome large ones? By entering into the great dynamics of Jesus' temptations.

Lenten challenge: This first week of Lent, list some concrete ways you can overcome temptations that correspond with your desires. For example, you may give up snacks between meals, choose not to participate in an activity of which you are an expert, and decide to reduce social media posting by 50%. It may not seem like much, but by saying "no" to the tyranny of food, power, and fame (in this example), you'll discover true greatness.

OCIA

On the First Sunday of Lent, our Catechumens and Candidates will be sent with our prayers and support from our parish to meet the Archbishop. They will be recognized and prayed for as they move toward the completion of their Sacraments of Initiation. Liz and Nichil will be baptized, confirmed and receive their First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. Alana, Alison, Ethan, and Gabriela, will receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Eucharist, and Gabriella, and Marisa will celebrate their Confirmation. Please keep them in your prayers during this period of Enlightenment.

FLOCKNOTE

OLA is using a new service called Flocknote for our email and text communications. Items like Fr. Michael's Friday videos will come from a different source, so be on the lookout!

WORD ON FIRE

The parish has discontinued our Formed subscription and replaced it with Word On Fire, a similar Catholic Content streaming service.

To access Word on Fire, you must first join our Flocknote community at olacommunity.flocknote.com. Simply enter your name and contact information, and then click on "Sign Me Up" where you will be guided through the process. Once signed in, you can click to view the Word on Fire Digital Library. The system will recognize the device that you are using for 30 days so that you can visit www.wofdigital.com/browse directly to access those videos at any time using that same device. If it's been over 30 days since you last visited the site and/or you are using a new device, you will just want to go back in through your Flocknote Dashboard again so the system recognizes that you are a Flocknote + Word on Fire ENGAGE parishioner.
